Dear Sir

Providence 15th March 1778—

With a Degree of impatience have I been waiting ever since I returned from Boston, either to see or hear from you— Nothing of the Money expected here, as yet Shd. Shou'd be glad to know whether you have had any further Account of the Matter, or whether it is likely soon to come, it is very much wanted in this Department, there are great Complaints Arising from every Quarter for the want thereof— I dare say you will loose no time in getting off it here after its Arrival— Genl. Spencer is very Anctious that it should come before he quits this Post, as he expects to have accts to it. in Order to settle those Accounts contracted during his Command in this Department—

Sorry for an Instruction may vary for the execution of my Office, you will be kind enough to furnish me with, especially a Pay-List of every Thank of Officers in the Service— A Line by the Bearer, Mr. Reynolds, Relative to the Above will lay an additional Obligation on Sir

Your very Humble Servt

Col. Hancock— Benj. Hall— 25
